The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari

By Robin Sharma | Category: Self Help

In-Depth Summary & Core Lessons

The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari – A Fable of Purpose and Inner Peace The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari is a powerful and inspiring fable that serves as a practical guide to self-mastery and spiritual awakening. Robin Sharma tells the story of Julian Mantle, a highly successful but stressed-out lawyer who suffers a near-fatal heart attack. This crisis prompts him to sell all his possessions, including his beloved Ferrari, and embark on a spiritual journey to the Himalayas. He returns transformed, sharing the ancient wisdom he learned from the Sages of Sivana. The book uses a narrative structure to introduce the Seven Virtues of Enlightened Living, which are presented through a captivating allegory called "The Fable of the Garden." These virtues cover essential life lessons, including the importance of mastering your mind, following your purpose, practicing self-discipline, respecting time, and living in the present moment. The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari is a timeless classic that encourages readers to look beyond material success and discover the true meaning of life, offering a clear, step-by-step philosophy for living a more purposeful, joyful, and fulfilling existence.

" The purpose of life is the life of purpose. "

" Never neglect the most important things for the most urgent. "
